MR. DULLES:

a. Referred to the current meetings between representatives of the United States and the USSR being held in Geneva and asked if it is planned that the CIA people who have been attending these meetings will return. Mr. Amory pointed out that [ ] would not and that we had already sent [ ] He commented this decision had been made since [ ] would be in need here to work on the Soviet nuclear energy estimate. The Director agreed but stated that, as a matter of policy, he desired that we follow up on conferences to which we had been invited since he did not want to give the impression that our people take off the cream and leave the more undesirable portions to someone else.

c. Asked Mr. Amory to have Dr. Kent attend all future Deputies' Meetings. Mr. Amory commented that in most instances Dr. Kent could attend but that there might be times, during periods of crash estimates, when he would be unable to do so.

GENERAL CABELL:

Noted that Admiral Reilly, Chief of Staff, CINCPAC, in a recent conversation with Paul Borel, indicated that he felt [redacted] should be "fully informed world wide." General Cabell pointed out that this would [redacted] and in a good many respects duplicate the work of the divisions at Headquarters. After some discussion, it was agreed that Admiral Reilly would be so advised. action DD/P [redacted]
